

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

BURDLEY JEAN, et al.

CRIMINAL NO. 05-10110-MLW

MOTION FOR ADDITIONAL TIME TO FILE STIPULATIONS OF FACT

The United States hereby moves the Court to extend by five days, until January 9, 2008, the period within which the parties may file stipulations of facts the parties agree are not in dispute. As grounds, the government states as follows:

1. In its scheduling order, the Court established January 4, 2008 as the deadline for the filing of stipulations of fact.
2. The parties are in discussion concerning several possible stipulations, but certain of the defendants require additional time to consider whether to enter such stipulations.
3. Trial is scheduled to commence on January 14, 2008. The requested extension of time will not affect the trial schedule.

Wherefore, the United States seeks leave to file stipulations of facts on or before January 9, 2008.

Respectfully submitted,

MICHAEL J. SULLIVAN
United States Attorney
